Wildlife Illustration "Snowy Owl on the Arctic Tundra"

Some hand made black and white patterned paper I had done became the inspiration behind this collage illustration.

Wildlife Illustration "African Penguin off The South Coast of Africa"

This piece came about because a penguin would make for a charming addition to my wildlife collage illustrations.

Wildlife Illustration "African Elephants on The Savanna"

A quickly scribbled and hatched sketch became the inspiration for the chunks of mixed rough textures that make up the elephant's hide.

Wildlife Illustration "Nine-banded Armadillo In his burrow"

While recycling I came across corrugated cardboard pieces. Looking at them they reminded me of the bands of an armadillo.

Wildlife Illustration "Wood Mouse In The Garden"

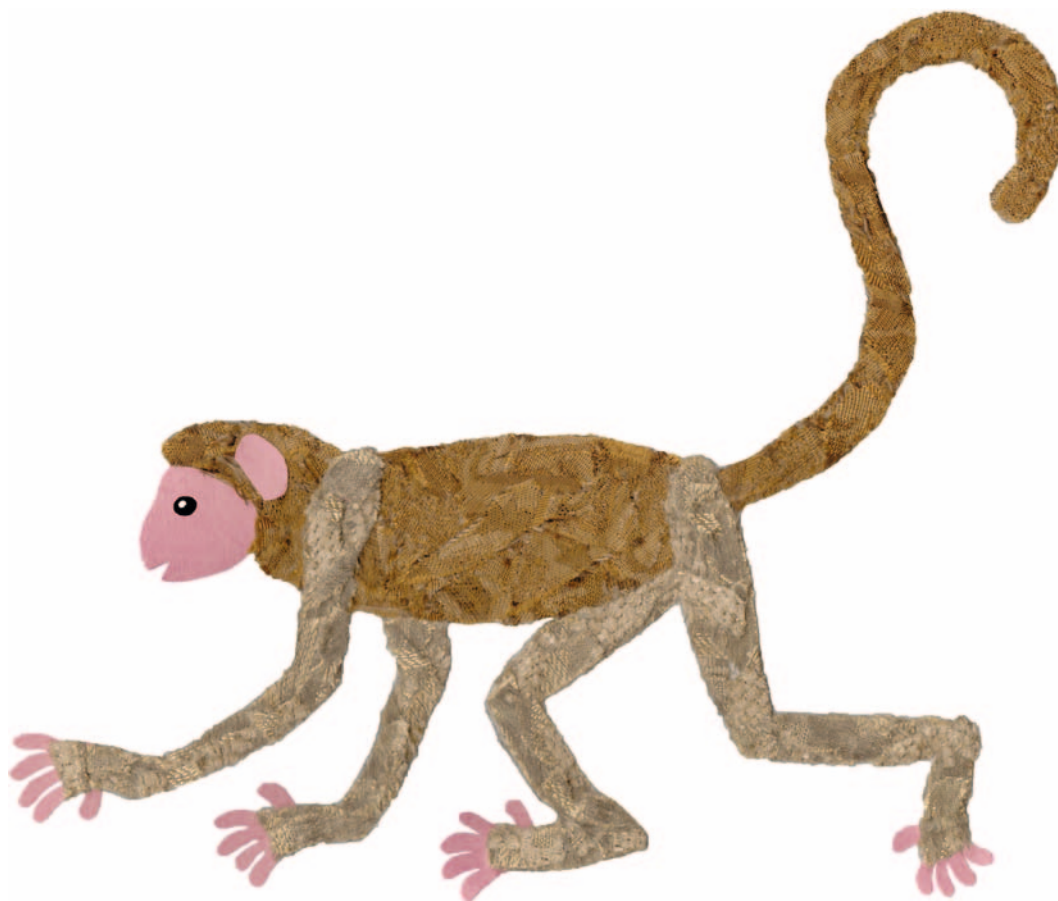

Mice are classic critters of many illustrative works. When I noticed this little guy he reminded me of characters from Beatrix Potter, Leo Lionni and many more.
